Date: 24/05/2017

Due to the tragic events in Manchester, the General Election hustings set to take place at The Holy Trinity Church in Wimbledon from 11:30am on 25th May 2017 will be cancelled.

The hustings was due to be attended by Carl Quilliam (Liberal Democrat) and Imran Uddin (Labour).

Both the Mitcham & Morden hustings and Wimbledon hustings will not be rescheduled. Both events have been cancelled and will no longer take place.

However, we will be sending five key questions to the candidates we had invited and their responses will be published ahead of the election on our website <http://www.mertoncil.org.uk/getting-involved/hustings-general-election-20/> .

Our thoughts go out to everyone at this difficult time.
